NSC BRIEFING

28 March 1957

INDONESIAN DEVELOPMENTS

- I. After two weeks, Indonesian efforts to form new government still unsuccessful.
 - A. Sukarno now pressing for modified "concept" which omits

 Communists from new cabinet but includes them in superadvisory "National Council."
 - B. Has called for formation of non-party "business cabinet"

 (by 2 Apr) which, when formed, would then appoint "Mational

 Council" (with Sukarno in chair).
 - C. New proposal looks like maneuver to compromise with some demands of Moslem-Christian opposition.
- II. Communists continuing strong support for Sukarno, including threat of national strike.
 - A. However, strike would be illegal under present "state of war and siege" and army has stated intention suppress any Commie disturbances "ruthlessly".
- III. Army remains important factor in any final crisis settlement.
 - A. Recent commanders' meeting resulted in unanimous call for renewed Hatta-Sukarno cooperation, and chief-of-staff has stated that Army will use present decree powers to clean up corrupties.
 - B. However, on issue of local autonomy, Army leaders from areas in revolt stood opposed to chief-of-staff.
 - C. Thus, Army unity-which could be key to settlement-still ho CHANGE IN CLASS. It not achieved.
